GEORGIA FRONTIERE

Chairman/Owner

Georgia Frontiere said it best when Dick Vermeil was introduced as the nineteenth head coach of the Rams not long after the 1996 season. "I've known and respected Dick since he was an assistant coach with us," said Georgia. "This is the perfect gift for the Rams, and for our fans."

The choice of Vermeil, out of coaching since 1982, had been a long time coming. Georgia and her late husband, Carroll Rosenbloom, met Vermeil when Dick became the first fulltime special teams coach in the NFL, for the Rams in 1969. Vermeil left the Rams for a coaching position at UCLA the following year, returned to the Rams in 1971, and became the head coach at UCLA in 1974.

Vermeil's office at UCLA was a five-minute walk from Georgia's home in nearby Bel Air. Dick visited Georgia and her husband on many occasions as Vermeil gained a national reputation by rekindling the Bruins' program, which culminated with a victory over No. 1-ranked Ohio State in the 1976 Rose Bowl.

Vermeil, who has energized the Rams with his know-how and upbeat approach, represented only one of many important decisions Georgia has made in recent years. The Rams' relocation to St. Louis was another. The move from the West Coast in 1995 has been the NFL's most successful franchise transfer. St. Louis and the Rams became one, the Rams as part of the community fabric, on the field in the new Trans World Dome and off the field in various charitable and promotional endeavors that underscored the organization's commitment throughout the bi-state area.

Georgia, who grew up in the city's Central West End, is in her 19th season as head of the Rams' organization. During the Frontiere era the Rams have been to a Super Bowl (game XIV), reached the NFL playoffs in eight seasons, and advanced to the NFC championship game three times, among numerous other accomplishments. Georgia is committed to providing the best in pro football entertainment and to position her franchise in the St. Louis community, with an emphasis on education, the arts, youth groups, and other charitable entities. She is a member of the board of the St. Louis Symphony and the St. Louis Zoo and a member of the Saint Louis University board of trustees. Georgia serves on the board of the St. Louis Variety Club and is a member of the organization's executive committee. She also is a member of the board of the Laumeier Sculpture Park in St. Louis County.

Charity and social consciousness always have represented a high priority for Georgia Frontiere. Not long after returning to St. Louis, she gifted a scholarship in her name to a deserving student at Hamilton Elementary, the school Georgia attended as a child in St. Louis. She also presents a $5,000 college scholarship to a student who draws the winning illustration for the cover of the Rams' media guide. Aside from her involvement in the St. Louis community, Georgia also holds a Doctor of Philanthrophy from Pepperdine University in Malibu, California, and is the U.S. Campaign Co-Chairman and on the Board of Directors of the American Air Museum in Britain, at Duxford, England.

Georgia has been a recipient of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, which cited her for "community involvement and for having greatly contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values of her ancestors." Georgia shared the award with, among others, Army General Norman Schwartzkopf.

The needs of children are of particular interest to Georgia, who has served on the board of directors of the Los Angeles Boys' and Girls' Club as well as being a benefactor of the St. Jude Children's Research Center in Memphis. Georgia also is a board member of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America and a National Board member of the American Foundation for AIDS Research. She occupies a similar position with the St. John's Ambulance Brigade of Great Britain, which not only provides ambulance services but is a major contributor to the St. John's Opthalmic Hospital, Jerusalem.

In 1991 Georgia's dedication to the advancement of youth was reflected in a substantial donation to the Fulfillment Fund, an organization that sponsors more than 2,000 high school students who are selected for having college potential.

Recognized internationally as a Patron of the Arts, Georgia is on the Board of the Los Angeles Music Center Opera, the Golden Horseshoe of the New York Metropolitan Opera, and the Boards of New York's Collegiate Chorale and the William Hall Chorale. She also is a member of the NFL Alumni Board of Governors and has a goal of creating a retirement home for ex-football players, coaches, and staff personnel.

Georgia is the mother of two children, son Dale Rosenbloom (married to the former Kathleen Melville) and Lucia Rodriguez (married to Lupe Rodriguez). She has five grandchildren.

STAN KROENKE

Vice Chairman/Owner

The Rams' inaugural season of 1995 represented the final step in a two-year effort by Stan Kroenke to return professional football to St. Louis. Kroenke's participation as an owner of the franchise served as a galvanizing force for the community.

With relocation of the Rams completed, Stan, as Vice Chairman of the organization, set out with Georgia Frontiere and senior management to develop a program for a winning team. Part of that plan resulted in the appointment of Dick Vermeil as Head Coach and President of Football Operations.

Although active in all facets of the team, Stan initially concentrated efforts on the development of the league's premier team headquarters and training facility. In one year's time, Kroenke oversaw the facility's construction in the area minutes west of the St. Louis airport. Completed in June, 1996, Rams Park, sitting on twenty acres in St. Louis County, includes 90,000 square feet of administrative and football training space, three outdoor natural grass fields, and an 80-yard indoor artificial surface field.

Kroenke is chairman and owner of the The Kroenke Group, a private real estate investment and development company with offices throughout the United States and headquarters in Columbia, Missouri. During the past twenty years, Kroenke has built a reputation as one of the nation's leading developers of shopping centers and apartment buildings.

Stan is a member of the Board of Directors of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. Kroenke has other business interests that include director positions with Community Investment Partnership I and II of St. Louis, the Boone County National Bank in Columbia, and the Central Bancompany in Jefferson City.

Kroenke serves as a trustee of the College of the Ozarks and on the Strategic Development board of the University of Missouri School of Business. He also is a trustee of the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame. Stan recently was elected to active membership in St. Louis's Civic Progress, which provides support and leadership for various community improvements that address economic development, education and quality of life.

Stan has undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and is an active supporter of Mizzou athletic programs, including the Dan Devine Club, named for the former Tigers football coach.

E. Stanley Kroenke was born in Cole Camp, Missouri, and grew up in Mora, Missouri. Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh. They reside in Columbia, Missouri.

JOHN SHAW
President
18th Season with Rams

John Shaw's importance to the Rams and his vision and influence in the National Football League have been dramatically underscored in the final decade of the 20th century, an era in which Shaw has been a predominant figure in events critical to the Rams and the NFL.

Shaw worked continuously with representatives from St. Louis and the NFL and was a central figure in the overwhelmingly successful return of professional football to the Missouri city in 1995.

During this intense period Shaw also maintained his role as an active participant in shaping the future of the NFL as a member of the NFL Management Council Executive Committee. Shaw was a principal contributor in the enactment of a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players' Association that brought labor peace to the NFL in 1993.

Shaw, who joined the Rams in 1980, also continued to oversee all aspects of the Rams' operation as Chairman and Owner Georgia Frontiere's primary advisor on financial, business, and legal matters. Most recently Shaw guided the Rams' search that resulted in the appointment of Dick Vermeil as the team's nineteenth head coach.

Shaw is a native of New York who moved to San Diego as a youngster, attended high school there, and graduated from the University of San Diego with a bachelor's degree in accounting. John continued his education at New York University School of Law, from which he received a Juris Doctor Degree, and practiced law in California prior to joining the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co.

Shaw is a member of the board of the Greater St. Louis United Way. He also is a member of the Council of Trustees of LEARN, an educational program. John has a daughter, Alexandra.

JAY A. ZYGMUNT
Executive Vice President
16th Season with Rams

Zygmunt works closely with Rams President John Shaw in overseeing all areas of Rams operations, particularly player contracts and the NFL-mandated salary cap that has become critical to NFL franchises since the 1993 Collective Bargaining Agreement was implemented with NFL players.

Zygmunt's expertise and knowledge of the myriad aspects of the salary cap are widely recognized. Jay also is the Rams' liaison to both the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players' Association in player relations and other collective bargaining matters.

Zygmunt, who joined the Rams in 1982 as General Counsel, was named Vice President in 1988, Senior Vice President in 1991, and Executive Vice President in 1996.

A native of Chicago, Zygmunt graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and is a member of the Sorin Society. Jay earned his Juris Doctor degree from Northwestern University School of Law, where he is a member of the Whigmore Society. Zygmunt is both a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the Illinois bar. Prior to joining the Rams he was associated with Arthur Andersen & Company and had practiced law.

Zygmunt is a member of the American Bar Association's Forum Committee on the Entertainment and Sports Industries and the Sports Lawyers Association. He resides in St. Louis.

BOB WALLACE

Senior Vice President/ Administration, General Counsel

17th NFL Season
Third with Rams

An NFL veteran, Wallace oversees the day-to-day business operation of the Rams, including departmental supervision, budgets, and planning.

Bob, who lettered in football as a running back at Yale University, first associated with the NFL and with professional football in St. Louis as a teenage training camp assistant with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1971. He later served the Cardinals as the Counsel to and chief contract negotiator for the team while representing the St. Louis law firm of Guilfoil, Petzall and Shoemake from 1981-91.

Wallace was Assistant to the President, General Counsel, and chief contract negotiator for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94 and returned to St. Louis when the Rams moved here in 1995.

A native of New York City, Wallace was a legal intern on former NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff while in college. Bob earned his law degree from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., after graduation from Yale.

Wallace serves on a number of boards, including the Urban League of Greater St. Louis; Payback, Inc.; Operation Excel, Inc.; Repertory Theater of St. Louis; Sports Lawyers' Association, and the St. Louis Sports Commission. Wallace is a member of the Sports and Entertainment Division of the American Bar Association. He also has taught classes on sports law at St. Louis University School of Law and received a certificate of recognition for law and education projects from the St. Louis Public Schools.

Bob and his wife Julie, a native of Murphysboro, Illinois, have two sons, Grant, 4, and Eric, 3, and live in St. Louis.

DICK VERMEIL
Head Coach
11th NFL Season
Fifth with Rams

It can be said that the St. Louis Rams "finally got their man" when team Owner and Chairman Georgia Frontiere appointed Dick Vermeil the 19th head coach in Rams history on January 22, 1997.

As Rams President John Shaw said in making the announcement, "Since I've been associated with this organization whenever there was a head coaching vacancy with the Rams, our search always started with Dick Vermeil, a proven winner who has produced positive results in a short period of time. In the past Dick was not ready to return to coaching. He now felt the time was right."

The time was right not only for Vermeil, out of coaching since 1982 but contacted by NFL teams virtually every year since, but for the Rams, a young team in need of the know-how, drive, and vision of Vermeil.

Vermeil is the rarest of all football coaches. He has been a Coach of the Year on four levels: high school, junior college, national collegiate Division I, and NFL. He also was the first fulltime special teams coach in NFL history, with the Rams under head coach George Allen in 1969.

Vermeil has been a winner through hard work and the ability to get others to work hard since the day in 1960 the 23-year-old graduate of San Jose State became head coach at Hillsdale High in the San Francisco suburb of San Mateo, California. In his second season, Vermeil's team fashioned a 9-0 record.

After one year as an assistant coach at San Mateo College in 1963, Vermeil became the head coach at Napa Junior College in the wine country near his birthplace in the Northern California community of Calistoga. Vermeil turned the perennially losing Napa program into an immediate winner with a 7-2 record in his first season.

A year later Vermeil joined the staff of John Ralston at Stanford University and served from 1965-68. On that staff were other future NFL head coaches such as Ralston, Bill Walsh, Mike White, Jim Mora, and Rod Rust.

Vermeil came to the NFL with the Rams in 1969, then joined Tommy Prothro's UCLA staff in 1970, but returned to the Rams with Prothro in 1971. Vermeil coached quarterbacks and special teams with the Rams from 1971-73.

Dick's next head coaching position was that which brought him national recognition for the first time. He took over the UCLA program in 1974 and, in his second season, led the Bruins to a 9-2-1 record, their first Pacific 8 Conference championship and their first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 seasons. The Bruins capped the season with a dramatic upset of No. 1-ranked Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

Vermeil then came to the NFL for the third time, facing his greatest challenge with the long-suffering Philadelphia Eagles. After 4-10 and 5-9 records his first two seasons, Vermeil in 1978 drove the Eagles to a 9-7 finish, their first winning season since 1966, and to a spot in the playoffs for the first time since 1960. The Eagles accomplished this feat despite not having a No. 1 or No. 2 draft choice the previous five years. Vermeil was named NFC Coach of the Year.

The following year the Eagles were 11-5, their most successful season in 20 years, and Vermeil was NFL Coach of the Year.

The Eagles posted a best-ever 12-4 record in 1980, won the NFC championship, and earned a berth in Super Bowl XV against the Oakland Raiders.

The 1980 season underscored the Vermeil mantra of hard work, dedication, and the will to win. Example: the 1980 Eagles outscored opponents 130-44 in the fourth quarter and 226-95 in the second half. Example: in an eerie twist to the NFL's playoff tiebreaker system, the Eagles needed only to lose by 24 points or less in the final regular-season game at Dallas to clinch the division title. Dallas took a 21-0 lead at halftime and was ahead 35-10 in the fourth quarter. On the brink of falling to a wild card berth in the playoffs, the Eagles rallied for 17 points in the final 10 minutes to clinch their first championship in 20 years.

Vermeil retired from coaching two years later and served as a television analyst on NFL and college games for CBS and ABC. His career as a television analyst provided Vermeil a rare distinction: he is the only man to coach a team in the Rose Bowl and to broadcast a Rose Bowl.

Vermeil was a four-sport star at Calistoga High in the community in which he was born October 30, 1936, and where Dick also was employed in the auto repair garage operated by his father, Louis Vermeil. Dick continued to learn the skills and work ethic of his father as a student at Napa Junior College and at San Jose State, where he was a quarterback on the football team and earned a master's degree in physical education in 1959.

Vermeil and his wife of 41 years, the former Carolyn Drake, have two sons, a daughter, and 10 grandchilden. Dick and Carol reside in St. Louis.

MARSHALL KLEIN

Vice President- Media and Community Relations

15th Season with Rams

Marshall Klein is the liaison between Rams chairman and owner Georgia Frontiere and the various Rams departments. Klein is principally involved with the numerous charities and organizations supported by and in which Georgia participates.

Klein oversees the marketing, public relations, and entertainment departments and represents the team at charitable and civic events. A native of Pittsburgh, Klein moved to Los Angeles as a youngster. He was employed 21 years by the Los Angeles Times, the last 15 as Sports Editor of the Orange County Edition, before joining the Rams in 1983.

Klein has lectured at several universities and is highly regarded as a public speaker and master of ceremonies.

Marshall and Katie Klein have four children, Philip, Michael, Benjamin, and Molly.

STUDENT WINS MEDIA GUIDE ART CONTEST

The cover illustration for the Rams' 1997 media guide was created by Andrew Bergholtz, 18, a 1997 graduate of Eureka High School in St. Louis, Mo.

Andrew's illustration was selected as the winner of the St. Louis Rams and St. Louis Post-Dispatch sponsored art competition that was open to students 18 years of age and under. Andrew wins a $5,000 scholarship from owner Georgia Frontiere to continue his education at the Kansas City Art Institute this fall.

LYNN STILES

Vice President/Football Operations

19th NFL Season

First with Rams

Stiles joined the Rams Feb. 5, 1997, bringing almost two decades of coaching and personnel experience to Dick Vermeil's first Rams staff.

Most recently Lynn was Vice President/Player Personnel and overseer of player development programs for the Kansas City Chiefs, for whom he served from 1992-96.

Stiles earned championship rings at Super Bowls XXIII and XXIV with the San Francisco 49ers as their tight ends and special teams coach from 1987-91.

Stiles was the Philadelphia Eagles' Player Personnel Director in 1982 and was Executive Director of Player Personnel from 1983-86. During this period the Eagles acquired such Pro Bowl players as Reggie White, Randall Cunningham, Seth Joyner, Clyde Simmons, and Keith Byars.

Stiles originally was associated with Vermeil when Lynn was Assistant Head Coach and defensive coordinator of the 1975 UCLA squad that capped a Cinderella season by defeating Ohio State in the Rose Bowl. Stiles briefly was on Vermeil's first staff at Philadelphia in 1976, then became head coach at San Jose State from 1976-78 and his teams won two conference championships.

Lynn returned to the Eagles in 1979 as tight ends coach, coordinator of special teams and administrative assistant to the Head Coach.

Stiles (4/12/41) was born in Kermit, Texas, and was a two-time all-Nevada selection at Reno High. He was all-academic and an all-conference guard at the University of Utah, playing in the All-American Bowl after his senior season in 1962. He began coaching at his alma-mater in 1963, moved to Kansas (1966-70) and was an assistant at UCLA (1970-75).

Lynn is married (Marigene) and has four children, daughters Stacy, and Tiffany and sons Shon and Blake.

ASSISTANT COACHES

MIKE WHITE

Assistant Head Coach/Tight Ends
10th NFL Season
First with Rams

One of Dick Vermeil's most important moves after arriving in St. Louis was the appointment of Mike White as Assistant Head Coach/Tight Ends. White, a two-time national collegiate coach of the year, with experience as an NFL head coach and as a founder of the World League, occupies a key role on Vermeil's staff in player personnel, administration, and coaching.

White began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of California in 1958, moved to Stanford as offensive coordinator in 1964, and was joined by Vermeil on head coach John Ralston's staff a year later. That Stanford coaching staff produced such future NFL head coaches as White, Vermeil, Bill Walsh, Jim Mora, Ralston, and Rod Rust.

White became a head coach for the first time in 1972, when he returned to his alma-mater, which had posted a record of 50-79-3 since going to the Rose Bowl in 1958. The Bears were 34-31-1 under White, including 27-16-1 in his final four seasons. The 1975 Bears posted an 8-3 record, led the nation with an average of 459 yards a game and blew out No. 1-ranked and 7-0 Southern California 28-14. White was named national collegiate coach of the year.

White was offensive line coach and administrative assistant to head coach Bill Walsh with the San Francisco 49ers in 1978-79, then returned to the college ranks at the University of Illinois in 1980. Mike inherited a program that had one winning season in the previous 14 and a won-loss record of 43-92-4 during that time.

After a 3-7-1 beginning in 1980, the Illini rebounded to 7-4 in 1981 and went to the Rose Bowl after the 1983 season, in which Illinois finished 10-2, averaged 34 points a game, and became the first team in Big 10 history to defeat all nine conference opponents. White, whose overall record was 47-41-3 through 1987 with the Illini, was NCAA coach of the year in '83.

Mike worked for a professional scouting service in Newport Beach, California, in 1988. In 1989 White and former Dallas Cowboys President Tex Schramm were the two persons most responsible for coordinating the beginning of the World League for the NFL. Mike joined the Los Angeles Raiders in 1990. He coached quarterbacks from 1990-92, offensive line in 1993-94, and was the Oakland Raiders' head coach in 1995-96, posting a record of 15-17.

Mike and his wife Marilyn have a daughter, Carrie, who lives in San Mateo, California, with her husband Scott; two sons, Chris and Matt, and two grandchildren, Hannah and Noah. Mike and Marilyn live in St. Louis.

JERRY RHOME
Offensive Coordinator
22nd NFL Season
Second with Rams

Jerry Rhome brings an abundance of professional experience to the young Rams' offense, having coached in the NFL for 21 seasons.

Rhome spent the past two seasons as offensive coordinator for the Houston Oilers. The Oilers finished first in the NFL in time of possession (32:12) in 1995, and third in 1996 (31:09) under Rhome's guidance.

Prior to his stint with the Oilers, Rhome spent one season as wide receivers coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1994). While in Minnesota, Rhome coached wide receivers Cris Carter and Jake Reed, who set an NFL record for most receptions in one season by teammates (207). Carter also set the single season reception mark with 122.

From 1990-93, Rhome was the offensive coordinator for the Phoenix Cardinals. Under Rhome's tutelage, quarterback Steve Beuerlein enjoyed a career year in 1993, breaking seven franchise records as the Cardinals finished in the top three in the NFC in total offense (352.8 ypg), average gain per play (5.2 yards), third down efficiency (46.2%), and time of possession (31:54). Before arriving in Phoenix, Rhome was Quarterback coach for the Dallas Cowboys (1989) and offensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers (1988).

From 1983-87, Rhome served as quarterbacks coach for the Washington Redskins. In Super Bowl XXII, Rhome helped guide the Redskins to a 42-10 victory over the Denver Broncos. Washington set two Super Bowl records, total yards in a game (602) and most points in a quarter (35). Rhome began his NFL coaching career in 1976 with the Seattle Seahawks as wide receivers/quarterbacks coach. He became the Seahawks' offensive coordinator in 1978 and directed the Seattle offense for five seasons. Rhome helped develop Hall of Fame receiver Steve Largent, coaching Steve for ten seasons, seven in Seattle and three at the University of Tulsa, where Rhome initiated his coaching career in 1973 as offensive coordinator.

Rhome is a former Rams quarterback, having played for the Rams in 1971-72 during an eight-year NFL career. Drafted by both the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Jets, Rhome also played for the Cowboys (1965-68), the Cleveland Browns (1969), Houston Oilers (1970).

Rhome played collegiately at Southern Methodist (1960-61) and Tulsa (1963-64). While at Tulsa, he enjoyed his best year in 1964, amassing 17 NCAA passing records and finishing second in the Heisman Trophy balloting.

A Native of Dallas (3/6/42), Jerry and his wife Sharon have two daughters, Shannon, 28, and Nicole, 24, and one son, Brett, 17. They reside in Chesterfield, Mo.

BUD CARSON
Defensive Coordinator
23rd NFL Season
Fifth with Rams

One of the great defensive minds in NFL history, Carson returned to NFL coaching ranks after a two-year hiatus. The former head coach of the Cleveland Browns is in his 23rd year as an NFL coach and 20th as a defensive coordinator. Carson joined the Rams on February 1, 1997, after retiring from coaching in 1995.

Carson has been building dominant defenses since becoming an NFL assistant with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1971. He served as Pittsburgh's secondary coach for one season before being named defensive coordinator in 1972. Carson became known as the architect of the "Steel Curtain" defense, serving as coordinator for six seasons (1972-77), and winning two Super Bowls (1974-75) during his tenure. In 1976, the Steelers recorded five shutouts and allowed just two touchdowns in their final nine games.

In 1991, Carson began a four-year term as defensive coordinator for the Philadelphia Eagles and put together one of the greatest defensive units in NFL history. The Eagles led or tied for the NFL lead in six defensive categories, and became the fifth team in league history to top the NFL in total defense (221.8 yards per game), pass defense (150.8), and rushing defense (71.0). The Eagles joined the 1954 Cleveland Browns, 1959 New York Giants, 1963 Chicago Bears, and 1975 Minnesota Vikings as teams to accomplish the feat. Only the Eagles and Vikings have claimed the defensive triple crown since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970. The Eagles also led the league in sacks (55), fumble recoveries (22), and tied for the lead in takeaways (48).

Carson was the Rams defensive coordinator from 1978-81. The Rams defense topped the NFL in fewest yards allowed during his first season, and reached the Super Bowl in 1979. In a 24-0 victory over Seattle on November 4, 1979, Carson's Rams defense set a NFL record by holding the Seahawks to -7 yards total offense.

Carson was defensive coordinator for the Baltimore Colts in 1982, Kansas City Chiefs (1983), and the University of Kansas (1984). Carson was defensive coordinator of the New York Jets from 1985-88.

Carson became the seventh head coach for the Cleveland Browns in 1989, and led the Browns to a 9-6-1 record and a berth in the AFC Championship game. Carson's tenure in Cleveland ended after a 2-7 start in 1990.

Born April 28, 1931, in Freeport, Pa., Leon H. (Bud) Carson, a graduate of Freeport High, was an All-Southern Conference defensive back at the University of North Carolina. Carson still holds the Tarheels' record for punt return yards in a game with 166 against North Carolina State in 1951.

Following a 30-month stint in the Marines, Carson began his coaching career at Scottsdale, Pa., High in 1955. He was a defensive assistant at North Carolina from 1957-64, joining the coaching staff at South Carolina in 1965. Carson became defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech in 1966, and succeeded Bobby Dodd as Tech's head coach one year later. Carson posted a record of 27-27 during his five years as head coach of the Yellowjackets.

Carson's wife Linda is a television news journalist. The Carsons have four children: Dana, Cliff, Gary, and Cathy.

NICK ALIOTTI
Defensive Assistant
Third Season with Rams

Aliotti coached safeties, then special teams in his first two seasons with the Rams, having joined the organization in 1995 after 10 years at the University of Oregon. Nick was defensive coordinator and secondary coach in his last two years with the Ducks and also coached outside linebackers, special teams, and assisted with running backs at Oregon. Aliotti began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of California at Davis, in 1974 and moved to Oregon as a part-time assistant in 1978-79. He was offensive backfield coach at Oregon State (1980-83) and offensive coordinator at Chico State in 1984.

Aliotti, a native of Pittsburg, Ca. (5/29/54), was a three-year letterman at running back for UC-Davis, from which he graduated with a degree in Education in 1976. Nick earned his Master's degree in Physical Education and Athletic Administration from Chico State in 1990. Aliotti and his wife, Kathryn, have two children, Michael, 15, and Nicole, 12. They live in Ballwin, Mo.

STEVE BROWN

Defensive Assistant

11th NFL Season

Third with Rams

Steve has been a defensive assistant and coached Rams cornerbacks in his first two seasons with the team. He played nine years in the NFL as a cornerback with the Houston Oilers (1983-90) and San Francisco 49ers (1991). A third-round draft choice (83rd overall) of the Oilers in 1983, Brown was second in the AFC with a 25.6-yard kickoff return average, earning a berth on Pro Football Weekly's all-rookie team as a kick returner.

Steve was a cornerback and kick returner at the University of Oregon from 1978-82. His collegiate career included 78 kickoff returns for a 23.9-yard average. Brown was a two-time all-West Coast selection and earned All-America honorable mention with 70 tackles and three interceptions as a senior.

A native of Sacramento, Ca. (3/20/60), Brown lettered in football, tennis, and track at C.K. McClatchy High. Steve and his wife, Michele, reside in Chesterfield, Mo., with their son, Cole (8/15/96).

JOHN BUNTING
Linebackers
16th NFL Season
First with Rams

Bunting is one of three former Dick Vermeil players who are on the coaching staff. He played 11 seasons with the Eagles, starting 119 of 133 career games, including 95 of 97 games over his final eight seasons. Bunting previously worked four years as an assistant coach with the Kansas City Chiefs, serving as linebackers coach (1995-96) and as defensive assistant (1993-94). Bunting was head coach of Rowan College (1987-92), leading the Profs to back-to-back Division III playoff berths in 1991 and 1992. Prior to coaching at Rowan, Bunting spent one season as defensive ends coach at Brown University (1986). Bunting's first coaching experience came with the USFL's Baltimore Stallions as linebackers coach (1985), one season after playing two years with the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL from 1983-84.

Bunting (7/15/50) is married (Dawn) and has two children, a daughter Kimberly and a son, Brooks. They reside in St. Louis.

DICK COURY
Wide Receivers
20th NFL Season
Sixth with Rams

An offensive football specialist, Coury rejoined the Rams in 1997. Coury, a veteran of seven NFL teams and three professional football leagues, came to the Rams from the Houston Oilers, where he served one season as offensive coordinator (1994) and final two seasons as offensive assistant/passing game (1995-96). He was instrumental in transforming the Oilers' offense from the Run-and-Shoot to a more conventional-NFL offense. Coury served as tight ends coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1993) and offensive coordinator for the New England Patriots (1991-92). He served his first tour of duty with the Rams (1986-90), coaching quarterbacks. While tutoring QB Jim Everett, Everett twice led the league in touchdown passes and became the first quarterback in Rams' history to throw for 4,000 yards. Before joining the Rams, Coury was head coach for the Boston/New Orleans/Portland Breakers of the USFL from 1983-

85, earning Coach of the Year honors in 1983.

Coury also is in his second stint as wide receivers coach under head coach Dick Vermeil, as Coury coached the same position at Philadelphia (1976-81). Dick coached linebackers at San Diego (1975). Coury spent one season as Head Coach/President of Football Operations for the Portland Storm of the World Football League (1974). His first NFL coaching experience came as wide receivers coach for the Denver Broncos (1972-73). Coury served four years on the collegiate level, as defensive coordinator at Southern California from 1967-69 and as head coach at the inaugural Cal State-Fullerton program from 1970-71. His coaching career began on the high school level at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, California. Coury's teams posted a nine-year record of 96-9-3. A graduate of Notre Dame, Coury and his wife Bonnie have seven children: sons Mike (10/1/54), Rick (6/6/56), Steve (7/3/57), Rob (10/14/58) and Tim (10/29/63), and daughters Catherine (5/1/60) and Linda (3/7/62). They reside in St. Charles, Mo.

FRANK GANSZ

Special Teams/Offensive Assistant

20th NFL Season

First with Rams

Gansz brought 20 years' NFL experience to the Rams. After serving as assistant head coach/special teams for the Atlanta Falcons from 1995-96, Gansz joined the Rams as an offensive assistant and special teams coach.

In 1986, as assistant head coach/special teams for Kansas City, Gansz put together one of the most explosive special teams units in NFL history. The Chiefs blocked or deflected an NFL record 10 kicks and scored five touchdowns. The special teams helped Kansas City claim its first playoff berth in 15 years by scoring all 24 points in a 24-19 win over Pittsburgh in the season finale. The Chiefs scored touchdowns on a blocked punt, blocked field goal, and 97-yard kickoff return, while adding a field goal.

Gansz served as head coach for Kansas City from 1987-88. He was the Detroit Lions' special teams coach from 1989-93. In 1989, Gansz was named NFC Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers.

Gansz's NFL coaching career began in 1978 as special teams coach for the San Francisco 49ers. He handled special teams and tight ends for Cincinnati (1979-80), Kansas City (1981-82), and Philadelphia (1983-85) before rejoining the Chiefs in 1986.

After serving as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force for six and a half years, Gansz coached at the Air Force Academy from 1964-66. He also had coaching stints at Colgate (1968), Naval Academy (1969-72), Oklahoma State (1973, 1975), Army (1974), and UCLA (1976-77).

Born in Altoona, Pa. (11/22/38), Gansz prepped at Taylor Allerdice High in Pittsburgh. He played center and linebacker for the Naval Academy and graduated in 1960. Married to Barbara, the couple has two children, Frank Jr., and Jennifer.

PETER GIUNTA

Defensive Backs
7th NFL Season
First with Rams

Giunta (pronounced JUN-ta) is considered one of the brightest young defensive minds in football. He came to the Rams after two seasons with the New York Jets (1995-96). In 1995, the Jets had the top-ranked passing defense in the NFL, allowing just 171.3 passing yards per game. Giunta's defensive unit helped the Jets to 34 takeaways, which tied for second-best in the AFC. He made his NFL coaching debut with the Philadelphia Eagles (1991-94). During that time the Eagles ranked in ten NFL's top 10 in at least one defensive category.

Giunta's coaching career began at Swampscott, Ma., High School, where he coached for three years (1978-80). He moved to the collegiate ranks at Penn State (1981-1983). Giunta was at Brown University (1984-87) as tight end/receivers coach and as offensive coordinator. He was tight end/receivers coach at Lehigh (1988-90) before joining the Eagles.

Giunta (8/11/56) attended Northeastern University in Boston, where he played running back and defensive back. He and his wife Cindy have one daughter, Christina and one son, John.

CARL HAIRSTON

Defensive Line
22nd NFL Season
First with Rams

Hairston began his NFL coaching career with Kansas City in 1995, serving two years as defensive line coach. In 1995, the Chiefs had one of the most productive defensive lines in the NFL, sending Neil Smith and Dan Saleaumua to the Pro Bowl. Hairston is in his first season with the Rams.

After enjoying a 15-year NFL playing career, "Big Daddy" spent three seasons as a scout with the Arizona Cardinals from 1991-93. He joined Kansas City as a pro personnel scout in 1994.

With 224 regular season games (184 starts), Hairston played in more games than all but three defensive linemen in NFL history. He registered 1,141 tackles, 94 sacks, and played in 10 postseason playoff games during his career. Hairston, a seventh-round draft choice by Philadelphia in 1976, started all eight seasons with the Eagles (1976-83) and recorded more than 100 tackles five straight years (1977-81). He led the NFC with a career-high 15 sacks in 1979. Hairston played six seasons in Cleveland from 1984-89, closing out his career with Arizona in 1990.

A native of Martinsville, Va. (12/15/52), Hairston was a four-year starter at linebacker and defensive end for Maryland-Eastern Shore, earning all-conference honors three times. He played one season of basketball in college before being graduated with a degree in Physical Education in 1985. Hairston was an All-State football player and won the Virginia state shot put championship as a senior at Martinsville High. Hairston has two children, son Carl Jr., 17, and daughter Crystal, 15.

JIM HANIFAN

Offensive Line

25th NFL Season

First Season with Rams

Arguably one of the top offensive line coaches in the history of professional football, Hanifan came to St. Louis for the third time, to coach the Rams offensive line. As offensive line coach for the football Cardinals from 1973-78, Hanifan's unit allowed the fewest sacks in the league each of his final five seasons. In 1975, the Cardinals' line allowed just eight sacks, the second lowest total in league history. That type of productivity earned Hanifan the NFL Assistant Coach of the Year Award,voted by coaches in 1977. Following a one-year stint as assistant head coach/offensive line in San Diego (1979), Hanifan came back to St. Louis as head coach (1980-85), posting winning seasons from 1982-84. The nine-win season in 1984 was an NFL high for a Hanifan-coached team, one in which the Cardinals came within a missed field goal of the division title. Jim joined the staff of the Atlanta Falcons as offensive line coach for three years (1987-89) before moving to the Washington Redskins in the same capacity (1990-96).

Hanifan's long, storied coaching career began as an assistant at Yuba City Junior College in Northern California (1959-61). He was head coach at Charter Oak High School in Covina, Ca., (1962-63). Jim coached at Glendale Junior College (1964-65) and at the University of Utah (1966-69). Over the next two seasons (1970-71), Hanifan handled the passing game at his alma mater, California. He moved to San Diego State (1972) as offensive line coach.

As a player, Hanifan earned All-America honors at Cal, leading the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 569 yards and seven touchdowns in 1954. He played one season of pro football with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League in 1955.

Hanifan (9/21/33) and his wife Mariana have two children: a daughter, Kathleen, and son James. The Hanifans reside in St. Louis.

WILBERT MONTGOMERY

Running Backs
10th NFL Season
First with Rams

A former All-Pro running back for the Philadelphia Eagles, Montgomery is in his first season as a coach. A sixth-round draft choice of the Eagles in 1977, Montgomery played eight seasons with Philadelphia (1977-84) shattering almost all of the Eagles' rushing records and leading the club in rushing six times. Montgomery, who ended his NFL career with Detroit in 1985, holds seven Eagles rushing records, including career attempts (1,465), rushing yards (6,538), attempts in single-season (338 in 1979), most rushing yards in a season (1,512 in 1979), career 100-yard rushing games (26), most 100-yard rushing games in season (8 in 1981) and most touchdowns in game (4). Montgomery gained 1,000 rushing yards in three seasons, including 1979, when he led the league with 2,012 all-purpose yards (rushing, receiving, returns). Montgomery ended his NFL career with 6,789 yards rushing, 2,502 receiving, 57 touchdowns and two Pro Bowl bids (1978-79).

An outstanding athlete at Abilene Christian University, Montgomery was a four-year starter at running back and set the all-time National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics record for touchdowns with 76. Montgomery also broke the college mark for touchdowns by a freshman with 37 and helped lead the Wildcats to the NAIA Division I National Championship in 1973. He also lettered in track as a sprinter, with bests of :09.6 for 100 yards, :20.8 for the 220, and 25 feet 6 inches for the long jump.

A native of Greenville, Mississippi (9/16/54), Montgomery attended Greenville High. Montgomery earned the Alumni Citation Award by Abilene Christian University in 1979, and was inducted into the inaugural Philadelphia Eagles Honor Roll in 1987 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996. Wilbert and wife Patricia, reside in St. Louis.

JOHN RAMSDELL

UNIFORM ADJUSTMENT

In 1958, Rams owner Dan Reeves switched the team's uniforms from blue and gold to blue and white, because the color gold did not translate well on television, predominantly black and white at the time. Reeves explored using different shades of gold that would look good on television. "Buttercup yellow" was the only shade that would work, but Reeves would not allow his team to wear "buttercup yellow." The Rams played in blue and white until owner Carroll Rosenbloom switched the uniforms back to the original blue and gold in 1973.

1996 SEASON

Game #1
RAMS 26, Cincinnati Bengals 16
Trans World Dome, September 1, 1996
Indoors, 72 degrees

The Rams opened the 1996 season with a 10-point victory over Cincinnati before 62,659 fans. The defense gave a strong opening performance by limiting the Bengals to 242 total yards. Linebackers Robert Jones and Carlos Jenkins registered seven tackles each as St. Louis held Bengals' running back Ki-Jana Carter to only 14 yards rushing on 14 carries. Cincinnati jumped out to a 3-0 lead on a Doug Pelfrey 27-yard field goal on the game's opening possession. The Rams were sparked to their first points of the season by their two 1996 first-round draft picks. Wide receiver Eddie Kennison returned a punt 40 yards to the Cincinnati 21-yard line. Four plays later, running back Lawrence Phillips scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Chip Lohmiller's PAT gave the Rams a 7-3 lead. Cincinnati regained the lead in the second quarter on a pair of Pelfrey field goals (35, 47) and led 9-7 at halftime. The Bengals converted a third-quarter interception into a touchdown. Darnay Scott caught a six-yard scoring pass from Jeff Blake, extending Cincinnati's lead to 16-7. After that, St. Louis dominated. The Rams scored on their next five possessions, scoring 23 unanswered points. A 42-yard field goal by Lohmiller on the ensuing drive cut the deficit to 16-10. The special teams unit came up with another big play as Antonio Goss broke free to block a punt. Paschall Davis recovered the ball at the Cincinnati 20. Eight plays later, Lohmiller added a 20-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to trim the deficit to 16-13. Keith Lyle's 58-yard interception gave the Rams possession at the Cincinnati 32, which led to Lohmiller's 29-yard field goal to tie the game at 16-all with 9:18 to play. On the ensuing kickoff, Keith Crawford forced a fumble, which was recovered by Jermaine Ross. Three plays later the Rams finally reached paydirt on Phillips' second 1-yard TD run with 7:33 to play gave St. Louis the lead for good. Kevin Carter created the Bengals' fifth turnover of the day by forcing a Blake fumble, which was recovered by Leslie O'Neal. Lohmiller converted his fourth field goal of the day, a 20-yard kick, with 5:26 remaining to seal the win.

Game #2
San Francisco 49ers 34, RAMS 0
3Com Park, September 8, 1996
Sunny, 82 degrees

Just as turnovers proved to be their best ally one week earlier, the Rams' biggest enemy on this day was turnovers as they were shutout for the first time since a 13-0 loss vs. Atlanta (11/14/93). St. Louis committed four turnovers, two of which were turned into 49er touchdowns. The Rams' defense kept San Francisco out of the end zone on a brilliant goal-line stand early in the second quarter. However, the 49ers got on the board three plays later when rookie quarterback Tony Banks, making his NFL debut on the possession, was called for intentional grounding in the end zone, giving the Niners a safety and a 2-0 lead. San Francisco rode that momentum to score on its next two possessions. Derek Loville's 2-yard touchdown run and a 38-yard field goal by Jeff Wilkins extended the 49ers lead to 12-0. SF added another score just before halftime when a punt snap sailed over Rams' punter Sean Landeta's head. Landeta kicked the ball out of the end zone for another safety, which gave San Francisco a 14-0 lead. The 49ers added a 22-yard field goal by Wilkins in th ther third quarter, extending the lead to 17-0. San Francisco finally wore down the Rams' defense in the fourth quarter, scoring a pair of touchdowns and a field goal to blow the game open.

Game #3

Washington Redskins 17, RAMS 10

Trans World Dome, September 22, 1996
Indoors, 72 degrees

For the second straight week, the Rams offense sputtered as Washington escaped with a victory. The Redskins got on the board on their second possession as Gus Frerotte connected on a two-yard touchdown pass to Scott Galbraith for a 7-0 lead. Washington converted a second-quarter Steve Walsh interception into points on a 38-yard field goal by Scott Blanton. In the third quarter, the Rams' defense came up with a big play as Torin Dorn intercepted a Frerotte pass and returned it 40 yards to the Washington 5-yard line. However, St. Louis couldn't get into the end zone and settled for a 19-yard field goal by Chip Lohmiller. The field goal was the first points scored by the Rams since the fourth quarter of the Cincinnati game and ended a streak of six consecutive scoreless quarters. Washington extended its lead to 17-3 later in the third quarter on a 9-yard touchdown run by Terry Allen. The Rams rallied in the fourth quarter and scored a touchdown on a 3-yard reverse by Jermaine Ross, which cut the lead in half with 7:17 to play. The scoring run ended a 10-play, 84-yard drive, the Rams longest scoring drive of the season. Following a strong defensive stand by the defense on Washington's next possession, the Rams had a chance to tie the game or go for the win. However Walsh's third interception of the day at the Washington 13-yard line with 2:40 to play ended the threat.

Game #4

Arizona Cardinals 31, RAMS 28 (OT)

Sun Devil Stadium, September 29, 1996
Sunny, 97 degrees

The Rams blew three 14-point leads in losing to the Cardinals in overtime in the "Battle of St. Louis." The overtime game was the first for the Rams since losing in overtime 34-31 to Cincinnati 10/7/90, ending a streak of 95 consecutive games without playing overtime. The game was also the start of a new era as Tony Banks made his first NFL start. Eddie Kennison jump-started the Rams' offense on a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown, the first in his career, staking the Rams to a 7-0 lead. St. Louis extended to a 14-0 lead in the second quarter as Banks threw his first career touchdown pass, a 46-yard connection to Issac Bruce. Arizona got on the board on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Kent Graham. St. Louis responded on its next possession on a 34-yard scoring pass from Banks to Eddie Kennison, extending the lead to 21-7. However, Arizona again answered on a 2-yard touchdown run by LeShon Johnson, cutting the Rams lead to 21-14 at halftime. In the third quarter, Banks threw his third touchdown pass of the game, this time a 49-yard connection to Bruce to give St. Louis a 28-14 lead with 6:14 to play in the quarter. However, the Rams would not score again. Arizona rallied for two touchdowns in the final 6:19 of the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime. Graham threw two touchdown passes, one to Larry Centers and the other to Frank Sanders, in the final period. The scoring pass to Sanders came with :11 to play in the game. In overtime, Johnson broke loose on a 66-yard run to the Rams' 8-yard line. Two plays later, Greg Davis' 24-yard field goal completed the comeback and gave the Cardinals the win.

San Francisco 49ers 28, RAMS 11

Trans World Dome, October 6, 1996
Indoors, 73 degrees

The 49ers again used Rams' turnovers to their advantage in beating St. Louis for the 13th straight time. The St. Louis defense once again made a strong statement, stopping the 49ers at the Rams' 1-yard line on fourth down early in the first quarter. San Francisco took advantage of a pair of unsportsmanlike conduct penalties on Toby Wright, who was ejected, to cash in for its first touchdown, a 1-yard touchdown pass from Elvis Grbac to Ted Popson with just under four minutes to play in the first quarter. In the second quarter, San Francisco turned two Rams turnovers into touchdowns. Merton Hanks intercepted a Tony Banks pass near midfield, which led to a Terry Kirby 1-yard touchdown run, extending the lead to 14-0 with 6:54 to play until halftime. On the Rams' next possession, Lawrence Phillips fumbled, Ken Norton recovered and returned it 21 yards to the St. Louis 9-yard-line. The 49ers scored on the next play as Popson caught his second touchdown pass of the day, a 9-yard strike from Grbac, to extend the lead to 21-0. The Rams got on the board on their first possession of the third quarter. The 16-play, 59-yard drive ended with a 28-yard Chip Lohmiller field goal, cutting the deficit to 21-3. San Francisco put the game away early in the fourth quarter as Jerry Rice caught a 31-yard touchdown pass from Grbac, extending to a 28-3 lead. The Rams reached paydirt late in the game on a 3-yard touchdown pass from Banks to Harold Green with just under two minutes to play. Banks' conversion run accounted for the final margin.

Carolina Panthers 45, RAMS 13

Ericsson Stadium, October 13, 1996
Sunny, 68 degrees

Carolina took advantage of five Rams turnovers to hand St. Louis its fifth consecutive loss. The Panthers scored on their first possession en route to scoring the game's 21 points. Wesley Walls caught the first of quarterback Kerry Collins' three touchdown passes with just under nine minutes to play in the first quarter to stake Carolina to a 7-0 lead. The Rams responded with a drive, but the attempt to tie the game was thwarted as a Tony Banks' fumble was returned by Kevin Greene 66 yards for a touchdown, extending the lead to 14-0 with 1:18 to play in the first quarter. The Panthers pushed their lead to 21-0 on a 54-yard scoring pass from Collins to Muhsin Muhammad. The Rams finally got on the board in the second quarter as Anthony Parker returned an interception 22 yards for a touchdown to cut the deficit to 21-7. However, Michael Bates returned the ensuing kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown and a 28-7 lead. St. Louis answered just before the half as Eddie Kennison caught a 12-yard touchdown pass from Banks, slicing the Rams' deficit to 28-13 at intermission. Carolina dominated the second half, outgaining the Rams 204 to 58 and limiting St. Louis to four first downs in the final 30 minutes. John Kasay added a 22-yard field goal and Walls caught his second touchdown pass of the day, a 19-yard pass from Collins, to turn the game into a rout at 38-13. The Panthers added a final touchdown on a 2-yard run by Dino Philyaw in the fourth quarter.

RAMS 17, Jacksonville Jaguars 14

Trans World Dome, October 20, 1996
Indoors, 72 degrees

Game seven proved to be lucky for St. Louis as it held off the Jaguars and broke a five-game losing streak. Defense proved to be the key as the unit intercepted five Mark Brunell passes in forcing six Jacksonville turnovers. Anthony Parker gave the Rams a 7-0 lead on an electrifying 92-yard interception return for touchdown in the first quarter. The touchdown moved Parker into a tie for fourth place on the NFL's career list of defensive touchdowns with seven. St. Louis extended to a 10-0 lead later in the first quarter on a 25-yard field goal by Chip Lohmiller. The Jaguars got on the board in the second quarter on a 1-yard run by James Stewart to cut the Rams' lead to 10-7. Jacksonville moved ahead on its first possession of the second half. Stewart scored his second touchdown on a 8-yard run to give the Jaguars a 14-10 lead with 11:26 to play in the third quarter. However, the Rams regained the lead on the ensuing possession. Eddie Kennison caught a 29-yard touchdown pass from Tony Banks, ending a 9-play, 86-yard drive. The score proved to be the game winner as neither team scored the remainder of the game. The Rams defense made the three-point lead stand up as Keith Lyle intercepted a pass in the end zone with just under four minutes to play in the game. Todd Lyght made the game-saving tackle as Jacksonville's Willie Jackson was tackled five yards short of the end zone on the game's final play.

Baltimore Ravens 37, RAMS 31

Memorial Stadium, October 27, 1996
Sunny, 72 degrees

Missed opportunities would doom the Rams on this afternoon as Baltimore pulled out a victory late in overtime. St. Louis jumped out to a 7-0 first-quarter lead on an 8-yard TD pass from Tony Banks to Issac Bruce. The touchdown reception was part of a banner day for Bruce, as he had an NFL single-game high 229 receiving yards on 11 catches. St. Louis extended its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter on a pair of field goals (50,38) by Chip Lohmiller. Baltimore cut the deficit to 13-6 on a 27-yard touchdown pass from Vinny Testaverde to Floyd Turner. In the third quarter, St. Louis took its largest lead of the game, 20-6, on a 25-yard interception return by Todd Lyght. Baltimore would then score on its next four possessions, scoring 25 of the next 28 points in the game to take the lead. A 50-yard field goal by Matt Stover and a 3-yard touchdown run by Bam Morris began the comeback. The two-point conversion pass from Testaverde to Alexander cut the Rams lead to 20-17. St. Louis temporarily stopped the bleeding on a 36-yard field goal by Lohmiller on the first play of the fourth quarter. Baltimore took its first lead of the game on the ensuing possession as Testaverde connected with Derrick Alexander on a 13-yard touchdown pass. Stover's PAT gave the Ravens a 24-23 lead with 13:17 to play in the fourth quarter. Baltimore extended its lead to 31-23 on a 10-yard run by Morris with 6:36 to play in the game. The Rams answered back with a 10-play, 87-yard drive that ended with a Harold Green 1-yard touchdown run with 3:07 remaining in the fourth quarter. Green's conversion run tied the score at 31-all. Baltimore had a chance to win the game in regulation, but Stover's 32-yard field goal attempt on the last play of the game was wide left. In overtime, St. Louis had a chance to win on its first possession, but Jamie Martin bobbled the snap on a 32-field goal attempt by Lohmiller with 5:43 to play. Baltimore won the game with 10 seconds remaining in overtime on a 22-yard touchdown pass from Testaverde to Michael Jackson.

Game #9
Pittsburgh Steelers 42, RAMS 6

Three Rivers Stadium, November 3, 1996
Cloudy and breezy, 41 degrees

Pittsburgh set the tone on its first two possessions en route to handing the Rams their seventh loss in eight games. Former Ram Jerome Bettis drove the Steelers' bus, rushing for two first-quarter touchdowns (3, 50) to give Pittsburgh a 14-0 lead. St. Louis got on the board early in the second quarter on a 25-yard field goal by Chip Lohmiller. Pittsburgh took advantage of a Tony Banks interception for its third touchdown, a 7-yard scoring run by Kordell Stewart, to extend the lead to 21-3. In the third quarter the Rams put a small dent into Pittsburgh's lead on a 27-yard field goal by Lohmiller, reducing the deficit to 21-6. However, any thoughts of a comeback were squashed on the ensuing kickoff as Pittsburgh's Erric Pegram returned the kick 91 yards for a touchdown. Following an Eddie Kennison fumble on the kickoff, the Steelers turned the turnover into points again. A two-yard run by Stewart pushed the lead to 35-6. Pittsburgh added a final touchdown on its first possession of the fourth quarter, a 17-yard run by Pegram, for the final margin.

Game #10
RAMS 59, Atlanta Falcons 16

Trans World Dome, November 10, 1996
Indoors, 72 degrees

A season's worth of frustration came to a hilt as St. Louis received scoring from its offense, defense and special teams in a rout of Atlanta. The Rams' point total was a team and NFL season high in 1996 and the third highest in team history. St. Louis also had two 100-yard rushers (Lawrence Phillips 14-106, Harold Green 13-106) for the first time since 1976 against Minnesota. Eddie Kennison began the fireworks with a 78-yard punt return for touchdown less than three minutes into the game. Tony Banks connected with Issac Bruce on a 22-yard touchdown pass to give the Rams a 14-0 lead with 6:08 to play in the first quarter. St. Louis scored on its next possession as Phillips, who had his first-career 100-yard rushing day, ended the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter to extend the lead to 21-0. On the next play from scrimmage, Gerald McBurrows tipped a Bobby Hebert pass, which was intercepted by Toby Wright. Wright returned the interception 19 yards for a touchdown to give the Rams a 28-0 lead with 11:24 to play in the second quarter. The Falcons scored their first points of the day on a 18-yard touchdown pass from Hebert to J.J. Birden to cut the deficit to 28-7. St. Louis padded its lead on the last play of the first half as Chip Lohmiller drilled a 42-yard field goal to give the Rams a 31-7 lead.The teams combined to score on three consecutive possessions in the third quarter. A Banks-to-Kennison 1-yard touchdown pass was sandwiched between Atlanta's 2-yard touchdown pass from Hebert to Jamal Anderson and a 47-yard Morten Anderson field goal as St. Louis lead 38-16 heading into the final quarter. The fourth quarter belonged to the Rams as they scored three touchdowns in the final 15 minutes. Green rushed for two scores, including a brusing 35-yard run, while Greg Robinson ended the scoring fest with a 13-yard run to give the Rams a 43-point victory, which tied for the fourth-largest margin of victory in team history.

Carolina Panthers 20, RAMS 10

Trans World Dome, November 17, 1996
Indoors, 72 degrees

The Rams went toe-to-toe for two quarters with eventual NFC Western Division champ Carolina, but didn't have enough to finish the fight as the Panthers emerged with a hard-fought win. After a scoreless first quarter, St. Louis drew first blood as Chip Lohmiller connected on a 41-yard field goal less than three minutes into the second quarter to stake the Rams to a 3-0 lead. Carolina matched the Rams' effort on the ensuing possession as John Kasay made a 38-yard field goal to tie the score at 3-all with 7:06 to play in the first half. The Rams answered Carolina's counterpunch with a late touchdown in the second quarter as Todd Lyght intercepted a Steve Beuerlein pass at the St. Louis 38-yard line. From there, St. Louis marched 62 yards in just 3 plays. Tony Banks capped off the drive with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Lawrence Phillips to give the Rams a 10-3 halftime lead. However, the second half belonged to the Panthers, who scored touchdowns on each of their two third-quarter possessions and outgained the Rams 177-70 in the final 30 minutes. Beuerlein connected with Wesley Walls on a 9-yard scoring pass with just under 10 minutes to play in the quarter to tie the game at 10-all. Carolina took the lead for good on its next possession as Anthony Johnson scored on a 7-yard run with 1:31 to play in the third quarter to give the Panthers the lead for good, 17-10. The Panthers added a 34-yard field goal by Kasay in the fourth quarter to end the scoring.

Green Bay Packers 24, RAMS 9

Trans World Dome, November 24, 1996

Indoors, 72 degrees

The Rams again dominated the first half but couldn't finish the job against the Packers in front of a Sunday night national television audience on ESPN. The Rams broke a scoreless tie in the second quarter, putting together a 13-play, 69-yard drive. Tony Banks connected with Issac Bruce on a 6-yard touchdown pass to give St. Louis a 7-0 lead. On the next play from scrimmage, Green Bay quarterback Brett Favre was called for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety to give the Rams a 9-0 lead just before the two minute warning. However, on the free kick the Packers recovered, which led to a 37-yard Chris Jacke field goal on the last play of the half to cut the Rams lead to 9-3. Green Bay rode that momentum into the second half in which they outgained St. Louis 178-84. On the second play of the third quarter, Doug Evans intercepted a Banks' pass and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers the lead for good. Green Bay then took advantage of a Banks' fumble deep in Rams territory. Favre cashed in the turnover, passing to Keith Jackson on a 6-yard touchdown pass to give the Packers a 17-9 lead with just under four minutes to play in the third quarter. Green Bay added its final touchdown less than a minute into the fourth quarter as Dorsey Levens caught a 5-yard touchdown pass from Favre.

RAMS 26, New Orleans Saints 10

Louisiana Superdome, December 1, 1996

Indoors, 74 degrees

St. Louis scored in every quarter to earn its first road victory of the season and its first in almost one calendar year (23-20 @ New York Jets 12/3/95). The Rams scored on the opening possession, sparked by a 43-yard kickoff return by J.T. Thomas to midfield. St. Louis drove to the New Orleans 17-yard line before former Saint Chip Lohmiller made a 35-yard field goal to give the Rams a 3-0 lead. The Saints took advantage of a tipped punt deep in St. Louis territory for their first points, a 30-yard field goal by Doug Brien to tie the game at 3-all. The Rams regained the lead early in the second quarter on a 32-yard Lohmiller field goal for a 6-3 lead. New Orleans answered with a four-play, 40-yard scoring drive set up by a 57-yard kickoff return by Tyrone Hughes. Torrence Small scored on a 17-yard reverse to give the Saints a 10-6 lead with 12:32 to play in the first half. However, New Orleans would not score again as the Rams regained the lead for good later in the second quarter. Robert Jones partially blocked a Klaus Wilmsmeyer punt to give the Rams the ball at the Saints' 43. Three plays later, Tony Banks passed to Issac Bruce on a 10-yard touchdown pass to give St. Louis a 13-10 lead they would take to halftime. The Rams added 10 points in the third quarter to build their cushion. Lohmiller made a 49-yard field goal and Harold Green's 1-yard touchdown run on the last play of the third quarter gave St. Louis a 23-10 lead. The Rams added a final score on Lohmiller's fourth field goal of the day, a 27-yarder, to seal the victory.

Chicago Bears 35, RAMS 9

Soldier Field, December 8, 1996
Cloudy w/ flurries, 31 degrees (wind chill 7)

Second-half ineptness again hurt the Rams as they fell to Chicago. The Bears scored on their second possession as Dave Krieg passed to Curtis Conway on a 27-yard touchdown pass, staking Chicago to a 7-0 lead. The Rams got on the board late in the second quarter on a 25-yard field goal by Chip Lohmiller, cutting the deficit to 7-3. The second half was dominated by Chicago, which scored touchdowns on its first three possessions. Rashaan Salaam scored on a 3-yard touchdown run and Krieg added a 1-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to increase the Bears lead to 21-3. On the Rams' next possession, Issac Bruce was ejected for bumping an official. Chicago scored a touchdown early in the fourth qurrter when the Bears recovered an Eddie Kennison fumble in the end zone for a touchdown. The Bears added their final score on a 4-yard touchdown run by Salaam. St. Louis got its lone touchdown on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Jamie Martin to Kennison with just under two minutes to play. Martin was in the game after Tony Banks was ejected earlier in the posssession.

RAMS 34, Atlanta Falcons 27

Georgia Dome, December 15, 1996
Indoors, 74 degrees

The Rams' rookie trio of Tony Banks, Eddie Kennison and Lawrence Phillips stole the show and led St. Louis to its second road win of the season. Banks and Kennison connected on three touchdown passes, while Phillips had his second 100-yard rushing game of the season as the Rams swept Atlanta for the first time since 1989. After a Morten Anderson field goal gave the Falcons a 3-0 lead, St. Louis scored 24 unanswered points. Banks and Kennison connected on touchdown passes of 72 and 77 yards in the first and second quarter, respectively, to give the Rams a 14-3 lead. A D'Marco Farr interception set up the Rams next score, a 25-yard field goal by Chip Lohmiller. St. Louis added one other score in the second quarter, a 6-yard touchdown run by Phillips, staking the Rams to a 24-3 lead. Atlanta closed the deficit on the ensuing possession as Bobby Hebert passed to Bert Emanuel, cutting the St. Louis lead to 24-10 at halftime. In the third quarter, Banks fumbled on the first play from scrimmage, which led to a Falcons touchdown. Craig Heyward's 1-yard run cut the margin to 24-17 less than a minute into the second half. The Rams added a field goal on their next possession, a 25-yarder by Lohmiller to push the lead to 27-17. Atlanta answered right back with a scoring drive that ended with a 31-yard field goal by Andersen to reduce the margin back to a touchdown at 27-20 entering the fourth quarter. Banks and Kennison connected for their third touchdown of the day, a 41-yard scoring pass to give the Rams a 34-20 lead. The Falcons again took advantage of a Banks' fumble, converting it to a touchdown. Hebert's 2-yard scoring pass to Eric Metcalf cut the deficit in half. Atlanta had two final opportunities to tie the score, but both possessions ended in Keith Lyle interceptions. Lyle, who had three interceptions in the game, grabbed his last one on the final play of the game in the end zone.

The Rams ended the season on a winning note, finishing with three wins in their final four games, rallying for a come-from-behind win. The Saints jumped out to a 10-0 first-quarter lead on a Mario Bates 1-yard touchdown run and a 43-yard field goal by Doug Brien. Tony Banks was injured late in the second quarter and was replaced by Jamie Martin, who rallied the team to victory. The Rams finally scored in the third quarter as Martin connected to Issac Bruce on a 22-yard touchdown pass to cut the deficit to 10-7 with 4:29 to play in the third quarter. The Saints extended the lead on the second play of the fourth quarter on a Brien 35-yard field goal. The Rams rallied for the win behind Martin, who drove St. Louis 33 yards following a short Saints punt. Martin's 15-yard touchdown pass to Eddie Kennison with 5:30 to play and Carlos Huerta's extra point proved to be enough for the Rams, who swept New Orleans for the first time since 1984.

Each year, the Rams honor four players with special awards. The players and coaches combine to vote on two of the awards, the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award and the Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award, while the players vote on the Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award and the Ed Block Courage Award. A description of each award:

Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award
Given to the team's Most Valuable Player. The award was established in 1969 in honor of the former owner of the Rams, Dan Reeves, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967. Reeves owned the Rams from 1941-71 and claimed World Championships in 1945 and 1951. He was the first to integrate football in the modern era with the signing of Woody Strode and Kenny Washington in 1946.

Carroll Rosenbloom Memorial Award
Given to the team's Rookie of the Year. The award was established following the unexpected death of former owner Carroll Rosenbloom in 1979. Rosenbloom became the owner of the Rams when orchestrated an unprecedented franchise trade in 1972. Rosenbloom traded the Baltimore Colts to Robert Irsay for the Rams. The Rams won an NFL record seven consecutive NFC West titles from 1973-79 under Rosenbloom's leadership.

Carl Ekern Spirit of the Game Award
Established in 1990, the award is given to the player who best exemplifies sportsmanship, ethic, and commitment to his teammates. Those traits were displayed by former Rams linebacker Carl Ekern, killed in an automobile accident in 1990. Ekern was a starter for the Rams from 1982-88 and was invited to the Pro Bowl in 1986.

Ed Block Courage Award
Ed Block was the head trainer for the Baltimore Colts for 23 years. When the Ed Block Courage Award was founded in 1978, it honored a Colts player for showing courage on and off the field. In 1984, it became a league-wide award honoring one member from each NFL team. Proceeds from the award and the Ed Block Foundation go to support and provide housing for abused children.

Finished with 55 touchdowns to rank second on Rams career list. Succeeded Pete Rozelle as General Manager for Rams (1960-69). Also played for Chicago Rockets (1946-48). Was first round draft choice in 1945. Played college football at Wisconsin and Michigan.

Dan Reeves

1970 — Tom Fears, WR (1948-56). Ranks second on Rams' all-time receptions list with 400 and is fourth with 5,397 receiving yards. Led NFL in receptions three times and touchdown receptions once. Posted two 1,000-yard seasons. Scored game clinching 73-yard touchdown to lift Rams to 1951 NFL championship over Cleveland. Holds Rams' playoff record with three 100-yard games during post-season. Also holds Ram playoff records with 28 receptions and 572 yards. Served as Rams assistant coach (1960-61). Was 11th round draft choice in 1945. Played college football at Santa Clara and UCLA.

Tom Fears

1971 — Andy Robustelli, DE (1951-55). Helped Rams claim World Championship in 1951. Selected to seven Pro Bowls, two with Rams (1953 and 1955). Played on winning teams in 13 of his 14 years. Also played for N.Y. Giants (1956-64). Was 19th round draft choice in 1951. Played college football at Arnold College.

1971 — Norm Van Brocklin, QB (1949-57). Led Rams to 1951 World Championship with 73-yard touchdown pass in fourth quarter to beat Cleveland. Led NFL in passing twice (1950 and 1952). Set NFL record with 554 passing yards against New York Yankees in 1951. Named to six consecutive Pro Bowls with Rams (1952-55). NFL Player of the Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club in 1954. Selected to NFL 1950's All-Decade Team. Also played for Philadelphia Eagles (1958-60). Led Eagles to 1960 NFL Championship and threw three touchdowns in 1960 Pro Bowl. Finished with 23,611 yards passing. Played college football at Oregon.

Ollie Matson

1972 — Ollie Matson, HB (1959-62). Selected to five Pro Bowls, including four straight (1954-57). Named Most Valuable Player of Pro Bowl in 1955. Was three-time Eastern Division All-Star choice (1956-58) and Western Division All-Star (1959). Also played for Chicago Cardinals (1952, 1954-58)), Detroit Lions (1963) and Philadelphia Eagles (1964-66). One of only three players (Jim Thorpe and Bob Hayes)ever to win an Olympic medal and make NFL All-Pro during his career. Traded to Rams from Chicago for nine players in 1959. First round pick by Cardinals in 1952. Played college football at University of San Francisco.

1974 — Bill George, LB (1966). Played 14 seasons for Chicago Bears (1952-65) prior to joining Rams in 1966. Became NFL's first middle linebacker when he dropped off line from middle guard position in 1954. Voted to Pro Bowl eight straight seasons (1955-62). Was an eight-time All-NFL selection. Registered 18 career interceptions. Played college football at Wake Forest.

1974 — Dick (Night Train) Lane, DB (1952-53). Set NFL interception record with 14 as rookie in 1952. Led NFL in interceptions twice (1952 and 1954). # THE RAMS STORY

1936 Under head coach Damon Wetzel's guidance, Cleveland Rams post second best record in American Football League with a 5-2-2 mark.

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and Associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach. Rams hit .500 mark for the first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player. Hall becomes first Rams' player to be named first team All-Pro.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team All-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire Billy Evans as general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar. Guard Riley Matheson becomes first Rams' offensive lineman to be named to first team All-Pro.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0. Riley Matheson is named first team All-Pro for second straight season

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy. Riley Matheson is lone All-Pro selection.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0. Riley Matheson collects All-Pro honors for fourth consecutive season.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Riley Matheson, Jim Benton, Eberle Schultz and Jim Gillette receive All-Pro honors. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign. Rams sign end Woody Strode and back Kenny Washington, two African-Americans, a year before Jackie Robinson breaks color barrier with Brooklyn Dodgers.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Offensive linemen Riley Matheson and Dick Huffman are selected to All-Pro team. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark. Fred Naumetz and Dick Huffman make All-Pro.

1949 Team wins first six games then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year. Rams have five players selected to All-Pro team—Dick Huffman, Tom Fears, Fred Naumetz, Bob Waterfield and Milan Lazetich.

1950 NFL absorbs AAFC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28. Waterfield is named NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Fears, Dick Huffman and Dick Reinhard receive All-Pro recognition.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to Los Angeles.Running backs Tank Younger and Dan Towler join Stan West and Larry Brink on All-Pro team.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires. Dan Towler, Larry Brink and Stan West are named to All-Pro team for second straight year, while Herb Rich makes it for first time.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games. Elroy Hirsch, Dan Towler, Andy Robustelli and Don Paul named All-Pro.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Norm Van Brocklin earns NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. Split end Bob Boyd is lone Ram to be named All-Pro. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum 38-14. Duane Putnam, Norm Van Brocklin, Ron Waller, Andy Robustelli, Les Richter and Will Sherman give Rams six All-Pro selections.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record. Duane Putnam and Les Richter earn All-Pro honors for second straight year.

1957 Ram owners name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders. Guard Duane Putnam receives All-Pro recognition.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year. Three Rams, Duane Putnam, Del Shofner and Jon Arnett, are first team All-Pro choices.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.Del Shofner and Duane Putnam are repeat choices to All-Pro team.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit. Split end Jim Phillips makes first team All-Pro.

1962 Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Dick Bass provides bright spot with All-Pro selection. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0. Rosey Grier is acquired from New York Giants and joins Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Lamar Lundy to form original Fearsome Foursome.

Rams All-Pro linemen Joe Scibelli (71) and Charlie Cowan (73).

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record. Deacon Jones records first 20-sack season in league history with 22. Merlin Olsen is selected to first team All-Pro.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed. Deacon Jones and Merlin Olsen receive first team All-Pro honors.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937, dies in September. Team finishes 8-6. Rams defense has three players named to first All-Pro—Merlin Olsen, Deacon Jones and Maxie Baughan.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office.Don Hewitt begins 28-year tenure as equipment manager. Rams record first unbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay 28-7 in Western Conference Championship Game. George Allen receives NFL Coach of Year honors by Sporting News. Repeat winners Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Maxie Baughan are joined by newcomers Charlie Cowan and Eddie Meador on All-Pro team. Jones establishes NFL record with 26 sacks and becomes first defensive lineman to post 100 solo tackles in a single season.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later. Deacon Jones is named NFL Defensive Player of Year for second straight season after registering 24 sacks. Jones, Merlin Olsen and Eddie Meador receive All-Pro honors.

Scene from Cleveland Stadium in 1945 NFL championship game.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player. Bob Brown, Charlie Cowan, Tom Mack, Gabriel, Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Eddie Meador give Rams a team record seven All-Pro selections.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed. Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen, Bob Brown and Eddie Meador are named All-Pro.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West. Linebacker Isiah Robertson is lone All-Pro choice.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed. Tom Mack and Coy Bacon are first team All-Pro choices.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year," Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Hadl is joined on All-Pro First Team by Harold Jackson, Joe Scibelli, Tom Mack, Jack Youngblood and Isiah Robertson. Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve, takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game. Merlin Olsen wins Bert Bell Trophy as NFL's Most Valuable Player. Tom Mack, Lawrence McCutcheon, Jack Youngblood, Fred Dryer, Isiah Robertson and Dave Elmendorf give Rams six All-Pro selections for second straight year.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. Jack Youngblood is named NFC Defensive Player of Year and earns first team All-Pro honors along with Tom Mack and Isiah Robertson. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC. Jack Youngblood, Isiah Robertson and Monte Jackson are named All-Pro. Merlin Olsen is invited to a league-record 14th Pro Bowl.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Isiah Robertson earns NFC Linebacker of Year award for third consecutive season. Larry Brooks and Monte Jackson receive first team All-Pro recognition. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Pat Haden earns NFC Player of Year award. Jack Youngblood, Jim Youngblood, Dennis Harrah, Pat Thomas and Frank Corral give Rams five All-Pro players. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19. Defensive line is represented on All-Pro team by Larry Brooks and Jack Youngblood.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for the first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named All-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen offseason trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams make playoffs for second time in as many years after finishing with 10-6 mark. Rams host first ever playoff game at Anaheim Stadium before record crowd of 67,037 but lose to New York Giants in NFC wild card game. Again, Eric Dickerson is the offensive force behind the Rams' success as he rushes for 2,105 yards, breaking O.J. Simpson's NFL record of 2,003. Jack Youngblood sets Ram record by playing in his 201st consecutive game. Quarterback Jeff Kemp replaces injured Vince Ferrangamo in Week Three and leads team to nine wins. Dickerson is named NFC Player of the Year and makes Pro Bowl along with Henry Ellard, Kent Hill and Doug Smith. Dickerson is joined by Bill Bain, Jim Collins and Henry Ellard on first team All-Pro.

1985 Rams season falls just one game short when they lose to Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week Five. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week Twelve. Eric Dickerson misses first two games but returns to rush for 1,234 yards. he sets an NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in first ever playoff win (20-0) at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team: Ron Brown, Jim Collins, Gary Green, Dale Hatcher, LeRoy Irvin, and four offensive linemen, Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith. Collins, Irvin, Hatcher, Brown, Vince Newsome and Henry Ellard receive first team All-Pro recognition.

WR Elroy Hirsch

1986 Rams make playoffs for fourth consecutive year after posting a 10-6 regular season record. Rams acquire rookie Quarterback Jim Everett from Houston in major trade with Oilers. Everett throws three touchdown passes in debut against Patriots and starts last five games including playoff loss to Washington. Eric Dickerson rushes for over 1,000 yards for fourth consecutive season (1,821) and surpasses former Ram running back Lawrence McCutcheon as the teams all-time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons. Defense plays important role in Rams' success, finishing fifth in total defense in the NFL, yielding 304 yards per game. Seven Rams selected to Pro Bowl - Dickerson, Carl Ekern, Jerry Gray, Dennis Harrah, LeRoy Irvin, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith. Harrah, Dickerson Slater and Irvin also garner first team All-Pro honors.

1987 Rams fail to make the playoffs for the first time in last five seasons while finishing with a 6-9 record. NFL players' strike shortens season by one game while three games are played with non-union players. Rams acquire six draft choices (three No. One's and three No. Two's over the next two years) from the Colts in blockbuster trade for Running Back Eric Dickerson. Charles White takes over for Dickerson and wins NFL rushing title by gaining 1,374 yards and is named to his first Pro Bowl as well as unanimous All-Pro.Ron Brown, Jackie Slater and Tom Newberry join White on All-Pro first team.

1988 Rams qualify for the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson, who becomes the winningest coach in club history with 58 wins. Rams lose NFC Wild Card Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Team features wide open offense as Jim Everett sets four Ram passing records and ties a fifth while wide receiver Henry Ellard sets a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86. Defensively, the Rams tie a club record with 56 quarterback sacks which leads the league. Rams have five of the top 47 choices in draft and select RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox on the first round. Five players are selected to the Pro Bowl - Jackie Slater, Henry Ellard, Tom Newberry, Doug Smith and Jerry Gray. Five more make All-Pro - Ellard, Slater, Newberry, LeRoy Irvin and Irv Pankey.

1989 Rams finish regular season with an 11-5 record and qualify for playoffs as a wild card entry. Team posts road playoff victories over Philadelphia and N.Y. Giants before losing to San Francisco in NFC Championship game. Rams' 13 wins are the most since 1978. Jim Everett becomes the first player in club history to pass for over 4,000 yards (4,310), while receivers Henry Ellard (1,382 yds.) and Flipper Anderson (1,146) are the first two receivers to gain over 1,000 yards in the same season. Anderson also sets NFL record with 336 receiving yards on 15 catches vs. New Orleans. Safety Vince Newsome tops defense with 89 tackles while Linebacker Kevin Greene registers 16.5 quarterback sacks. Jerry Gray, Kevin Greene, Tom Newberry, Jackie Slater, Doug Smith and Ellard make the Pro Bowl. Gray returns interception for a touchdown and is named the game's Most Valuable Player. Slater is named NFC Offenisve Lineman of Year for third straight season and fifth time in career. Slater, Newberry, Greene, Gary and Mike Lansford are All-Pro first team picks.

1990 Henry Ellard, (most receptions with 412 and yards with 7,037), and Jackie Slater (most games played with 209) both set Ram records as the team posts a disappointing 5-11 record. Ellard and Willie "Flipper" Anderson also become first receivers in Rams history to have consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, a feat only two other NFL teams have accomplished. Rams spoil 49ers attempt to break NFL record of consecutive wins by beating San Francisco at Candlestick, 28-17. Jackie Slater and Jim Everett represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

QB Roman Gabriel

DT Merlin Olsen

1991 Rams suffer through one of the most disappointing seasons in their history by finishing with a 3-13 record. The franchise loses a record 10 games in a row to finish the season. John Robinson resigns as head coach prior to the club's last regular season game. Tackle Jackie Slater becomes the first player in Ram history to play 16 seasons. Rams fail to have a player named to the NFL Pro Bowl for the first time since the game's inception in 1950. Versatile Robert Delpino earns first team All-Pro honors as receiver-back.

1992 Rams hire former head coach Chuck Knox (1973-77) as head coach, replacing John Robinson. Rams select DT Sean Gilbert, from the University of Pittsburgh with third choice in the first round. By doubling its victory total from the previous year Los Angeles finishes 6-10. Rams deal eventual Super Bowl XXVII champions only loss at home 27-23 and set club record by overcoming a 24-point deficit in 31-27 win at Tampa Bay. Kevin Greene is named to All-Pro first team.

1993 NFL and Player Association representatives agree on a new free agency system for players with 5 years or more experience. Rams name Jim Everett and Sean Gilbert as transition players, giving Los Angeles the first right of refusal once their contracts expire. Rams select RB Jerome Bettis, from the University of Notre Dame with the 10th pick in the first round and he earns rookie of the year honors after rushing for 1,429 yards (2nd in NFL) including 212 yards at New Orelans in 23-20 Rams' victory. Bettis and DT Sean Gilbert, who led team with 10.5 quarterback sacks, become first Rams since 1990 to appear in Pro Bowl. Bettis becomes only second player in team history to win Rookie of the Year honors. Both Bettis and Gilbert receive first team All-Pro accolades.

1994 Rams endure an active off-season of change in which club signs several free agents, including QB Chris Miller of Atlanta and DT Jimmie Jones of Dallas, and trades QB Jim Everett. Rams trade down in draft and have 10 choices in first six rounds and seven in first three. Auburn T Wayne Gandy is club's first choiceeld on May 3, Rams exercise a clause in their lease with city of Anaheim that allows the club to terminate lease within 15 months. Rams become first team ever to shutout Joe Montana with 16-0 win over Kansas City at Arrowhead Stadium. Team suffers its fifth consecutive losing season after dropping final seven games. Jerome Bettis finishes with 1,025 yards and earns second Pro Bowl invitation, becoming first Ram player to do so since Jackie Slater in 1990. Chuck Knox is relieved of his coaching duties at end of season.

1995 Frontiere moves franchise to St. Louis after 49 years in Southern California. NFL owners approve team's relocation effort with 23-6-1 vote on April 12, bringing NFL football back to St. Louis after eight year absence. League owners originally block proposed move with 3-21-6 vote on March 15. Rams hire Steve Ortmayer as Vice President for Football Operations and former Oregon coach Rich Brooks as 19th head coach in team history. After signing several free agents, including LB Carlos Jenkins, CB Anthony Parker and QB Mark Rypien, Rams make Florida DE Kevin Carter their number one draft choice. Rams greet St. Louis with 4-0 record to start season. Isaac Bruce produces record-breaking year with 119 receptions for 1,781 yards, while D'Marco Farr finishes eighth in NFL with 11.5 sacks. Bruce is named recipient of Daniel F. Reeves award as team's most valuable player and receives All-Pro recognition from Sports Illustrated. Jackie Slater becomes first player in NFL history to play 20 seasons with one team by starting against Carolina. Chris Miller announces retirement during offseason due to concussion problems.

1996 Rams complete busy offseason by signing several free agents, including DE Leslie O'Neal and LB Robert Jones. Rams trade DE Sean Gilbert to Washington for sixth overall pick in 1996 draft and later swap RB Jerome Bettis to Pittsburgh for second round selection in 1996 and fourth round pick in 1997. Rams receive high praise for producing one of league's top drafts. They upgrade offense by selecting Nebraska RB Lawrence Phillips and LSU WR Eddie Kennison in first round and Michigan State QB Tony Banks in second. Team moves into state-of-the-art administration and practice facility in June.

1997 Rams celebrate club's 60th anniversary of professional football. On January 20, Dick Vermeil is hired as head coach and President of Football Operations, replacing Rich Brooks. Vermeil replaces Steve Ortmayer with Lynn Stiles as Vice-President/Football Operations. Vermeil quickly assembles experienced staff of five former professional football head coaches , including Mike White, Bud Carson, Jim Hanifan, Frank Gansz and Dick Coury. Vermeil trades four picks with New York Jets in exchange for first pick in 1997 NFL draft. Rams select offensive tackle Orlando Pace first overall. St. Louis signs free agents K Jeff Wilkins, FB Craig Heyward and LB Michael Jones.

RAMS CELEBRATE 60 YEARS

The Rams' franchise was born in Cleveland in 1937 and was the 1945 NFL champion. Before the next season, it became the first pro sports franchise to move to the West Coast. Under the leadership of owner Dan Reeves, the Rams continued there as a top team, winning another league title in 1951. Exciting stars such as quarterback Bob Waterfield and Norm Van Brocklin, running backs Deacon Dan Towler and Tank Younger, and wide receivers Tom Fears and Elroy (Crazylegs) Hirsch, sparked Rams teams in the fifties.

In 1960, Los Angeles general manager Pete Rozelle was named NFL Commissioner. The 60's featured the 'Fearsome Foursome' defensive line, led by Pro Bowl Hall of Fame members David (Deacon) Jones and Merlin Olsen, along with Rosie Grier and Lamar Lundy.

In 1972, then-owner Carroll Rosenbloom, traded his Baltimore Colts franchise for the Rams and helped build a team that won the 1979 NFC championship and a spot in Super Bowl XIV. After Rosenbloom's tragic death, his widow Georgia Frontiere, took over the team and earned seven playoff berths in the 1980s, including six of seven years from 1983-1989.

RAMS OVERTIME GAMES

The Rams have played in 14 overtime games, 13 in the regular season and one in the playoffs, since the NFL adopted the extra period in 1974. They own a 6-7-1 record overall in overtime games, and held the longest consecutive game streak in the NFL without an overtime at 95 spanning from 1990-96.

TRAINING CAMP

The St. Louis Rams will hold their 1997 Training Camp at Western Illinois University in Macomb. Rams Advance Camp begins July 14, when rookies, quarterbacks and selected veterans report. The remainder of the team will arrive July 17. The Rams will break camp on Wednesday, August 13.

The tentative daily schedule includes morning and afternoon practices, which are open to the public. The Rams are scheduled to scrimmage the Indianapolis Colts on July 26 at the University of Illinois-Champaign.

Western Illinois represents the ninth training camp location for the Rams since 1946.

TRAINING CAMP FACTS

LOCATION: Western Illinois University, Macomb, IL.

Western is located approximately 150 miles north of St. Louis and can be reached by way of Alton, IL., proceeding on Highway 67 through Jacksonville and Beardstown. Proceed north on Highway 136 and turn left at University Drive, which runs into campus.

DATES: Rookies, quarterbacks and selected veterans report on July 14. Full squad workouts begin July 18 and run through August 12.

MACOMB: Macomb is a community of about 20,000 in the hub of the West Central Illinois heartland. The university has a student population of 12,500, including 2,000 out-of-state and 550 foreign students.

PRACTICES: Rams practice sessions are open to the public and are free of charge.

INFORMATION: Further information about Rams training camp can be obtained by calling the Rams in St. Louis at 314-516-8790.

TRANS WORLD DOME

TRANS WORLD DOME DIMENSIONS

Opened:
November 12, 1995 (Rams vs. Carolina)

Seating Capacity:
66,000. The first 14 rows are retractable seats to provide space for meetings and trade shows.

Turf:
Magic Carpet Astro Turf. There are 73,000 square feet of turf, weighing 100,000 pounds. Hydraulic winches pull the Astro Turf carpet out of a pit beneath the floor onto the Dome floor. An air blower system blows air between the floor and carpet to reduce the friction of the turf being dragged across the Dome floor. After use, the turf is rolled up by the drive roll machinery in the pit. Football-ready setup time takes approximately three hours using the Magic Carpet system.

Cost:
$280 million

Size:
205 feet high, 14 acres wide. The 12.5 acre roof structure weighs 10.4 million pounds. There were 262 miles or 64,000 yards of concrete used.

Stadium Club:
Largest in the country. The Club Level has 42,500 square feet of bars, food service and hospitality space. No other stadium dedicates an entire concourse to its stadi um club.

Scoreboard System:
Sony JumboTron, White Way Matrix Scoreboard. The two Sony JumboTrons stand 20 feet high and 26 feet wide and weigh 10,800 pounds. The system consumes a maximum of 62,330 watts of electricity.

Restrooms:
There are 968 public toilets, including 478 for women, 481 for men, and nine family restrooms.

1997 ST. LOUIS RAMS ON RADIO

All sports Fans 590, KFNS-AM (590), joins the flagship radio station KSD-FM (93.7) to form the "Voice of the Rams" for the 1997 National Football League broadcasts. Together, KSD and KFNS will originate all 20 preseason and regular season Rams games broadcast over the Rams Radio Network on over 30 affiliate stations in the four-state listing area.

For the third straight year, the Voice of the Rams tandem of Gary Bende and Jack Snow will be in the booth each game day. As a former Rams wide receiver, Snow will provide expert commentary from a player's perspective, with Bender handling the play-by-play activities.

The Voice of the Rams broadcast day includes a two-hour pre and post-game show including live locker room interviews with players and coaches, and an exclusive "First Five" with Head Coach Dick Vermeil immediately following each game.

Additional programming on the Voice of the Rams include the Dick Vermeil Show each Monday night, the Rockin' Rams Rally on Thursday evenings, daily Rams Reports and an industry first, the Rams Assistant Coaches Show each Thursday only on Fans-590-KFNS.

Only one paint is tough enough.

If there's one thing that everyone in the NFL knows, it's the importance of toughness. So when these experts select the Official Paint Supplier of the NFL, they expect paint that's as strong as they are: Tru-Test E-Z Kare paint, available only at True Value. A leading consumer magazine rated Tru-Test E-Z Kare Flat Enamel the most durable paint they'd tested, because of its ability to stand tough where others got trampled. And Tru-Test paint can be custom mixed in any color you want – including the hard-playing team colors of the NFL. So you can bring all the excitement of your favorite NFL team into any room of your home, just by picking up a gallon at your neighborhood True Value store. And that makes Tru-Test especially tough. To resist.
